THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING, STATISTICS AND PROGRAMME IMPLEMENTATION (SHRI ARUN SHOURIE): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) No, Sir. However, Chief Minister of Orissa had requested for waiver of debt servicing liability amounting to Rs. 503 crore pertaining to the period November, 1999 to March, 2000. Apart from this, the State Government of Orissa has also requested for deferment of debt servicing liability of the State for six months from March, 2001.

(c) As regards waiver/rescheduling of debt, the Government of India is guided by the recommendations of the Eleventh Finance Commission which was mandated to review the debt position of the State, the repayment liability of the State has been captured in its recommendation on devaluation from Centre to States and any selective reopening would not be consistent with EFC scheme.
